

II. Rewrite the sentences below keeping their meaning and using the given word. Do not change the given word. Write between two and five words including the given one in each gap.(5)

1. "No, I didn't use my computer," said David. denied David
..... his computer.
2. They didn't go on a picnic because it was raining heavily. rain But ..... they would have gone on a picnic.
3. Someone stole Bill's briefcase yesterday. stolen Bill
..... yesterday.
4. We have taken care of everything. been Everything.....
5. Can you look after Susan while I go out. eye
Can you..... while I go out?

III. Choose and circle the word which best completes the sentence. (5)

1. The winter months were lasting / endless / constant / permanent and everything was covered with snow.
2. He was dishonest with me that / which / which / what did not surprise me.
3. Within a little / few / a few / little seconds I was scared for my life.
4. Parents must be keen / eager / interested / willing to allow their children the opportunity to explore.
5. The staff at the check-in are trying to insist / attract / urge / convince you that it won't be long before the problem is solved.

IV. Use the word given to form a word that fits in the space. (5)

1. We have to protect (danger) species.
2. He was punished for forging his mother's (sign)
3. He runs the company (success)
4. We would like to point out the(similar) between our projects .
5. Plants have to be (fertile) to grow well.

V. In some of the following sentences are mistakes. Correct where necessary. If you think there are no mistakes write 'C'. There can be only one mistake in a sentence(5)

Example: This aren't big. Write: This isn't big.
She is alone. Write: C

- 1. She asked me what was I going to do.
- 2. I'll help you provided you'll ask me to.
- 3. Mary had some letters typed yesterday.
- 4. Is there a solution of this problem?
- 5. I've never been to UK.